PREFACE

1931887

MANUALS of the First Church of Christ in Milford were published in 1844, 1855, 1867, 1873, 1887, and 1922; pastorates of Coe, Brace, Hubbell, Lyman, Calhoun and Briggs; Manuals of Plymouth Church were published in 1855, 1861, 1874, and 1908; in the pastorates of Scofield, Harvey, Griffin, and Meserve. A book of 190 pages was published in 1890, containing the proceedings of the 250th Anniversary, held August 25, 1889. In that book are two historical sermons; one for the occasion, by Rev. Elijah Baldwin; the other by a former pastor, Rev. J. A. Biddle, preached in the Church August 9, 1876, but never before published. Memorial tablets for six former pastors; Prudden, Newton, Andrew, Whittelsey, Pinneo and Brace, were presented. That volume contains the presentation addresses. It also includes "The Present Condition of the Church," and other items of historical interest. Following the Tercentenary Celebration in August, 1939, a thirty-two page book was published, with proceedings, photographs, historical sermon and other articles.

This is the first Manual published since the Churches were united. Beside the usual historical and other items which make up a Church Manual this one contains a brief biography of each of the thirty-seven pastors. The 1,322 members are listed in alphabetical order, with the year they united with the Church, and whether by Confession of Faith or by Letter. A great deal of research and painstaking work have gone into the preparation of this volume. With so many names and such a variety of items, mistakes are sure to occur. When such errors and omissions are discovered please report them to the Church Office for correction.

Man has no higher privilege than to become a true member of the Christian Church. It is a real challenge to be a member of this old, historic Church. Each member should know something of its background, and of the devoted men and women of ten generations, who by faith transformed the wilderness, endured hardness by great sacrifice, and conquered gloriously. They are now members of the Church Triumphant. With humility, faith and courage let us gird on the whole armor of God, and try to do for our time what they did for theirs.

HISTORICAL SKETCH

THE First Church of Christ in Milford was organized in New Haven, August 22, 1639. The Reverend Peter Prudden led a company of fifteen families from England to these shores. They arrived in Boston on July 3, 1637. That summer and the next winter were spent with friends in Dedham. The following spring they joined the Davenport-Eaton Company and sailed to what is now New Haven with the founders of the New Haven Colony. Their first religious services on Connecticut soil were held under an oak tree on Sunday, April 25, 1638. The Reverend John Davenport preached in the morning. The Reverend Peter Prudden preached in the afternoon from the text: "The voice of one crying in the wilderness, prepare ye the way of the Lord, make his paths straight."

Mr. Prudden and his party desired a church and a colony of their own. Land was purchased February 12, 1639. No attempt was made at settlement that winter. Other families joined them until the party consisted of fifty-four heads of families and about two hundred persons.

Before moving to Wepawaug they organized their church. It was gathered around seven of their best men whom they called "pillars." The "seven pillars" were the Reverend Peter Prudden, William Fowler, Edmund Tapp, Zachariah Whitman, John Astwood, Thomas Buckingham and Thomas Welch.

Their "Covenant" with God and with one another was written by Peter Prudden and is preserved in his handwriting in the first book of Church Records. The government of the town was a Theocracy, a little republic independent of all outside authority. God was their only King and the Bible their only law book. The franchise and the right to hold office were limited to church members. This system was changed when Milford merged with the Connecticut Colony in 1665, and property rather than church membership became the basis of citizenship.

The Milford Church has been one of the largest and most important in the state through three centuries. The early pastors were men of exceptional ability. Two were educated in Cambridge, England; one was graduated from Harvard, one from Princeton, one from Dartmouth, one from Oberlin, three from Amherst, and fourteen from Yale. One was tutor in Harvard, four were tutors in Yale, two were members of the Yale Corporation, and one was acting president of Yale for fourteen years.

The church was divided in 1741, following the great revival of Edwards and Whitefield. The controversy of the "Old Lights" and the "New Lights" caused a division in many of the older churches of Connecticut. It was one of those things which was inevitable, and for which no one is to be blamed. It resulted in great good to the Kingdom. Plymouth Church was formed at that time, beginning its 185 years of honorable history, and its long line of godly ministers. The first pastor was Job Prudden, great grandson of the founder and first pastor of Milford. The occasion for the division had long been forgotten. There was a growing feeling of good will between the two churches. It was inevitable that they should become one church again. They were reunited in 1926; and the wholesome stream of spiritual life flows on.

FROM EARLY RECORDS

THE founding of the Church is mentioned in Mather's Magnalia: "There were then two famous Churches gathered in New Haven—gathered in two days, one following upon the other—Mr. Davenport's and Mr. Prudden's, and with this one singular circumstance, that a mighty barn was the place wherein the duties of that Solemnity were attended."

The only authentic account of that transaction is in the Church Records in Peter Prudden's handwriting:

"The Church of Christ in Milford was first gathered at New Haven upon August 22, 1639. The persons first joining in the foundation were those whose names are next under mentioned: Peter Prudden, William Fowler, Edmund Tapp, Zachariah Whitman, John Astwood, Thomas Buckingham, Thomas Welch."

THE COVENANT

"THE church covenant yt they entered unto is hereunder written: Since it hath pleased ye Lord of his infinite goodness and free grace to call us (a company of poor miserable wretches) out of ye world unto fellowship with himselfe in Jesus Christ, and to bestow himself upon us by an everlasting covenant of his free grace sealed in ye blood of Jesus Christ, to be our God, and to make and avouch us to be his people, and hath undertaken to circumcise our hearts, that we may love ye Lord our God, and feare him, and walk in his wayes: we, therefore, do, this day, avouch ye Lord to be our God, even Jehovah, the only true God, the Almighty maker of heaven and earth, the God and father of our Lord Jesus Christ; and wee do this day enter into a holy covenant with ye Lord, and one with another, through ye grace and help of Christ strengthening us (without whom we can do nothing), to deny ourselves and all ungodliness and worldly lusts, and all corruptions and pollutions, wherein in any sort wee have walked. And do give up ourselves wholly to ye Lord Jesus Christ, to be taught and governed by him in all relations, conditions and conversations in this world; avouching him to be our only prophet and teacher, our only Priest and Propitiation, our only King and Lawgiver. And we do further bind ourselves, in his strength, to walk before him, in all professed subjection to all his holy ordinances, according to ye rule of the gospel, and also to walk together with his church and ye members thereof in all brotherly love and holy watchfulness to ye mutual building up one another in Fayth and Love. All which ye Lord help us to perform, through his rich grace in Christ, according to his Covenant. Amen."

MR. PRUDDEN'S ORDINATION

"I, Peter Prudden, was called to the office of a pastour in this church, and ordayned at New Haven, by Zachariah Whitman, William Fowler, Edmund Tapp, designed by ye church to that work; Zachariah Whitman being ye moderator for that meeting, in a day of solemn humiliation, upon ye 2nd Wednesday in April, 1640, being, I remember, ye 8th day of ye month."

PLYMOUTH CHURCH—THE BEGINNINGS

THE following is taken from the manual edited by Rev. William C. Scofield, in 1855, "principally made up of extracts from the ancient records of the Church and Society."

IN the year of our Lord, 1737, on account of the advanced age of Rev. Samuel Andrew, who had, for more than half a century, been intrusted with the pastoral care of what is now the First Church and Society in Milford, "the Rev. Samuel Whittlesey was by a majority of votes invited, called and settled there in opposition to a great number, though a minor part, which laid the foundation of much discord and confusion in the church. The principal objection against Mr. Whittlesey was a suspicion of his being in the Arminian Scheme, and the brethren opposed to his settlement obtaining no satisfaction as to that matter, vigorously prosecuted their opposition to the time of his settlement." At length they consented to his ordination on condition, that, if at the end of six months they remained dissatisfied still, they should "have the liberty of another chosen by them, to be settled in the ministry as a colleague to Mr. Whittlesey."

But Mr. W. "did so well guard his ministrations during the six months as not to lie open to any exceptions of weight. Hoping that he would so continue, they did not move for a compliance with the agreement afore mentioned." It was not long however before he gave them uneasiness, by reason of his "delivering from the desk such doctrines as they did not believe were agreeable to the Word of God, neither were embraced by their pious predecessors, the Fathers of England."

Having sought to bring their grievances before the Church, but failing through the refusal of Mr. Whittlesey to lay the matter before that body, "two of their number waited on the Rev. Association of that County in their session at Durham, in May, 1740, for advice and counsel in their distressed and uneasy circumstances, and for answer were told they had no advice to give. Thus did their Reverend Fathers in the ministry slight them in their distressed and afflicted state."

Afterward, that no way for relief might be left unattempted, one of their number in the Annual Town Meeting, in Dec. 1740, made a moving speech, representing the uneasy state many were in under the present ministry, desiring the Town might take into consideration and attempt some relief, but to no purpose. The Hon. Jonathan Law, Esq., Moderator of the meeting, appearing not pleased with it, and putting it aside.

Every attempt for relief from the Church, the Association, and the Town failing, they were obliged to seek some other method for obtaining it. After having been so unsuccessful in their attempt for relief under the Constitution of these churches, they were naturally and necessarily led to look out for a Constitution of Church Government that might be more agreeable to the Word of God, than they had reason to think that was, under which they had found it so difficult to obtain relief in their distresses. Therefore they were induced to dissent from that Constitution, and to declare for the excellent establishment of the Church of Scotland.

The following is the form of the declaration:

"We, the subscribers in the Town of Milford and in the Colony of Connecticut, do hereby testify and declare ourselves to be of the Presbyterian profession, according to the established religion of that part of Great Britain called Scotland; and whereas, by an act made in the first year of King William and Queen Mary, liberty is granted to such as shall soberly dissent from the religion established by law, of worshipping God according to their own consciences, which said act is by an act of this Colony incorporated into the Laws of this Colony;—We therefore, that we may enjoy the privileges granted in said act, do hereby appoint the following gentlemen or any five of them, in our names to apply to the next County Court, there to perform what in the act is required."

[Here follow the names of the Committee.]

"And we do hereby promise each other that we will do the utmost in our power to promote and advance the work and design we are engaging ourselves in, as witness our hands: Milford, 5th day of January, 1741.

Then follows a bitter controversy and litigation.

The doors of the Meeting House were closed against five Evangelical preachers this year, (1743), and one of them preached on the door steps to an assembly of a thousand people.

The General Assembly in 1750, released them from taxes to the First Society, and granted them certain parish privileges. But they were not incorporated with ample privileges as a society till May, 1760.

Their first legal meeting was held 29th October, 1760. The Assembly, in May, 1770, allowed them their proportion of the funds for the support of the Gospel.

THE NAME CHANGED

THE following resolution was passed by the General Assembly at the May session, 1859:

Resolved by this Assembly, That the name of the Second Ecclesiastical Society of Milford be and hereby is changed to Plymouth Society of Milford, by which name it shall be hereafter known and called, and shall be vested with all the rights, privileges and immunities now possessed by said Second Ecclesiastical Society of Milford.

*All these persons were members of the Church.

ELDERS AND DEACONS

REV. JOHN SHERMAN was chosen Teacher of First Church soon after it was organized. He declined the appointment and no one was ever again elected to that office. The office of Ruling Elder continued until 1712.

Plymouth Church had Ruling Elders for a time while under the Presbyterian form of Government. Following are the names of the Ruling Elders of each church:

FIRST CHURCH		PLYMOUTH CHURCH
Zachariah Whitman	Ordained 1645	Noah Baldwin
John Clark	Ordained 1673	Nathaniel Buckingham
Daniel Buckingham	Ordained 1673	Ephraim Strong
		Benjamin Fenn

THE DEACONS

THE Church Records do not give complete information regarding the election of Deacons until after 1800. The names of those in the original Church of Christ and in the First Church up until 1786 are from a list compiled by the Rev. J. A. Biddle at the time of the Two Hundred and Fiftieth Anniversary of the founding of the Church. The Deacons of the Plymouth Church up until 1818 are from a Church Manual compiled in 1861 during the pastorate of the Rev. W. Nye Harvey.

CLERKS

THE early records of both First and Plymouth Churches were kept by the pastors. Even after the position of clerk was established, the First Church by vote on January 4, 1865 designated the pastor as clerk, ex officio. Consequently, except between pastorates, the ministers of the First Church served as clerks until 1882.

REVIVALS

For many years after the formation of the church, additions to it were more frequent, but in smaller numbers at a time, than in later years. In no case were there more than fifteen added in one year, or more than twelve at one time. From 1733 to 1770 accessions became more frequent, but this is to be attributed chiefly to the plan of receiving members on the half-way covenant. In the early part of Mr. Whittelsey's ministry, commenced a general revival of religion throughout the New England Churches; and it is probable that of the unusual number admitted to this church in the years 1738 and 1741, a large proportion were fruits of that revival.

The following table shows what years have been distinguished for revivals of religion—the number of additions to the church by profession—and the number admitted at one time:

REVIVALS IN PLYMOUTH CHURCH

THE Manual of Plymouth Church edited by Rev. Mr. Meserve in 1908 gives an interesting summary of Revivals in that church.

"It is known that the church enjoyed several revival seasons previous to the commencement of the present century, but the first on record occurred under the ministry of the Rev. David Tullar, and is thus noticed: 'This year (1798) we have had a great harvest of souls; nearly seventy were added to the church. The awakening began to make its appearance in August 1798, and gradually increased from that time until the spring following. The subjects of the work were generally seized with a great sense of their wickedness, and so continued until they hopefully humbled, and were brought to the knowledge of the truth. A remarkable reformation in family prayer appears to have attended the work.'"

In 1816, under the ministry of Rev. Caleb Pitkin, twenty-five persons were added to the church on profession of their faith, indicating a more than usual attention to the subject of religion.

In 1821, as the fruits of a revival under the ministry of Rev. Jehu Clark, forty united with the church.

Under the ministry of Rev. Asa M. Train, the church enjoyed five seasons of refreshing from the presence of the Lord. In the year 1828, there were added to the church forty members, in 1831, twenty-three, in 1832, fifty; in 1835, twenty-seven; in 1843, eighty-three.

As a result of Rev. J. M. Sherwood's labors in 1852, twenty persons were added.

About the first of September 1854, under the ministry of Rev. Wm. C. Scofield, the Spirit of God began to move upon the hearts of his people, leading them to humiliation, fasting, confession of sin and prayer. Sinners were soon heard inquiring, "What shall I do to be saved?" The work continued for about eight months. As the fruits of the revival eighty persons made a public profession of their faith in Christ, by uniting with this church.

In the month of November, 1865, special religious interest began to develop in the hearts of the impenitent, the people of God having been stirred to unusual earnestness in prayer for a blessing. Sixty souls were added to the church on confession of their faith, in several subsequent communion seasons, as the result of this awakening.

Sixteen more united with us, on confession, in September, 1868, following the work of grace in connection with the labors of Rev. J. D. Potter, in May of that year.

Twenty more converts were added in the spring of 1874, the Rev. R. S. Underwood having assisted in the work.

During the ministry of Rev. Chas. E. Upson the Salvation Army labored in Milford. As a result, in the spring of 1898 more than forty joined the church on confession and by letter.

Rev. Howard C. Meserve received sixty-two new members into the church and baptized fifteen.

Rev. Clarence Reidenbach received one hundred new members and baptized twenty-seven.

Rev. Frank E. Carlson received thirty-one new members and baptized eight.

BIOGRAPHICAL SKETCHES OF FIRST CHURCH PASTORS

THE REVEREND PETER PRUDDEN

REV. PETER PRUDDEN, son of Robert and Mildred Prudden, was born in Luton, Bedfordshire, England, December 1601. His ancestry is traced back seven generations to John Prudden (born about 1416) of Kings Walden, Hertfordshire. Education: Merchant Tailor's School, London 1616-17; Emmanuel College, Cambridge 1620. Married (before 1633) Jane, daughter of William Thomas, of Monmouth County, Wales. "God marvelously blessed his ministry in England unto many about Herefordshire and near Wales." Arrived in Boston, June 26, 1637, with fifteen families from Hertford, Buckingham, and adjoining counties. Preached in New Haven and Wethersfield, 1638. He came to this country a widower with no children. He married (second) Joanna Boyse, of Roxbury, Mass., daughter of the Rev. John Boyse, of Halifax County, York, England. He was founder and first pastor of this Church which was organized August 22, 1639. He died July, 1656.

I am sure 'tis a blessed child of God whose name is before us; who besides his other excellent qualities was noted for a singular faculty to sweeten, compose and qualify exasperated spirits and stop or heal all contentions—whence it was that his Town of Milford enjoyed peace with truth all his days. He continued an able and faithful servant of the Churches until the fifty-sixth year of his age; when his death was felt as the fall of a pillar which made the whole fabrick to shake. COTTON MATHER'S Magnalia, 1702.

THE REVEREND ROGER NEWTON

REV. ROGER NEWTON, son of Samuel Newton, born in England about 1610. Education: King's College, Cambridge, England 1636; entered Harvard 1638. Studied Theology in the home of Rev. Thomas Hooker, founder of Hartford, Conn. Mather refers to him as "one of the young students who came from England to finish their education in America." He married Mary, daughter of Rev. Thomas and Susannah Hooker. Their first child, Samuel, was born October 20, 1646. Founder and first pastor of the Church in Farmington, Conn. 1652-57. He was installed pastor of this Church on its twenty-first birthday, August 22, 1660, and continued in that office for twenty-three years. He received young men into his home to study Theology. One of these was Abraham Pierson, who married a Milford girl, Abigail Clark, and became the first President of Yale. He died in Milford, June 7, 1683.

A good minister of Jesus Christ.

THE REVEREND SAMUEL ANDREW

REV. SAMUEL ANDREW, son of Samuel and Elizabeth (White) Andrew, born in Cambridge, Mass., January 29, 1656. His grandfather, William, was a mariner who came from England to the new world in 1632. He graduated from Harvard in 1675, and served as tutor and Fellow in that College for several years. The General Court of Massachusetts ordered that fifty pounds be paid to him and to John Cotton for carrying on the President's work after the death of President Oakes. He was ordained in this Church, November 18, 1685, and continued as its pastor for more than fifty-two years. He was one of the principal founders of Yale and acting president for twelve years. He taught the senior class in the Milford parsonage, and supervised the instruction of the lower classes carried on by tutors at Saybrook. He was a profound scholar; one of the most influential ministers in the Colony, and one of the drafters of the famous "Saybrook Platform." He married Abigail, daughter of Robert and Jane (Tapp) Treat. To them were born nine children. Their daughter, Abigail, married Jonathan Law, who served as Governor of the Colony. Elizabeth married Timothy Cutler, who became President of Yale. Died January 24, 1738, in his eighty-second year.

Greatly esteemed in life and lamented at death.

THE REVEREND SAMUEL WHITTELSEY, JR.

REV. SAMUEL WHITTELSEY, JR., eldest son of Rev. Samuel Whittelsey, born in Wallingford, Conn. July 10, 1713. Education: Yale B.A. 1729; Harvard M.A. Studied Theology with his father and became tutor at Yale when he was twenty-one years of age. Called from that position and ordained pastor of this Church December 9, 1737. He married September 21, 1743, a Milford girl, Susanna Bryan Newton, great-granddaughter of the second pastor. He was pastor during troubled times. The "Great Awakening," by the preaching of Jonathan Edwards and George Whitefield, caused a division in many churches. Our own Plymouth Church was formed at that time. He was by nature a man of peace. In spite of the division, which no one could help, he had a fruitful ministry. He died October 22, 1768, in his fifty-sixth year, having been pastor of this Church thirty-one years. On his stone in Milford Cemetery is an inscription in Latin:

Sacred to the memory of Reverend Samuel Whittelsey, Master of Arts at Yale and Harvard; whose virtues, piety, and good deeds everywhere shone with peculiar lustre, and whose increasing and faithful labors in sacred things, for more than 30 years among the inhabitants of Milford, justly entitled him to honor. He was at length removed by death from all earthly friends, duties, and honors, on the 22nd October 1768 in the 56th year of his age.

THE REVEREND SAMUEL WALES

REV. SAMUEL WALES, son of Rev. John Wales, born in Raynham, Mass., March 2, 1748. He entered Yale when fifteen years of age, and graduated with honors in 1767. He taught in Mr. Wheelock's famous Indian School at Lebanon for two years, then became tutor at Yale. He was ordained pastor of this Church December 19, 1770. He was a Chaplain in the Revolutionary War. He married Catherine, daughter of Captain Isaac and Catherine (Baldwin) Miles, of Milford. They had one daughter and five sons. After a successful pastorate of eleven years he was called to the Chair of Divinity in Yale College. He received the honorary degree of Doctor of Divinity from both Yale and Princeton. He went to Europe in 1786, visiting France, Holland, and England. His brilliant career was cut short by death in New Haven, February 18, 1794, in his forty-sixth year.

He was an excellent preacher, and by his distinguished abilities, in union with exemplary piety, he added luster and dignity to the Theological Chair. Dr. Holmes

THE REVEREND WILLIAM LOCKWOOD

REV. WILLIAM LOCKWOOD, son of Rev. James and Mary (Dickenson) Lockwood, born in Wethersfield, Conn., January 21, 1753. His father declined a call to be President of Yale in 1766. Graduated from Yale in 1774. For three years he was in charge of Hopkins Grammar School in New Haven, while studying Theology. He was tutor at Yale for two years, when he became Chaplain in the Army, and continued until the close of the war. He married December 16, 1784, Sarah, daughter of Hon. Jonathan and Deborah (Lewis) Sturges, of Fairfield. He was ordained pastor of this Church March 17, 1784 and continued until 1796 when he had to resign on account of illness. He was pastor of the Church in Glastonbury, Conn. 1797-1804, when ill health made it necessary for him to retire from the ministry. He continued to live in Glastonbury until his death, June 23, 1828. He was a member of the Massachusetts Society of The Cincinnati.

A man of excellent qualities of Character, beloved by his people to the end.

THE REVEREND BEZALEEL PINNEO

REV. BEZALEEL PINNEO, son of James and Jerusha (Strong) Pinneo, born in Lebanon, Conn., July 28, 1769. His father was a captain and two brothers were soldiers in the War for Independence. He graduated from Dartmouth in 1791, and studied Theology with Rev. Dr. Smalley of Berlin, Conn. He taught school for a time in Colchester and Wethersfield. He was ordained in this Church October 26, 1796, and continued as pastor for more than fifty-two years. He had a fruitful ministry with frequent revivals and many new members added to the Church. He trained young men for the ministry. The North Milford (Orange) Church was set off as a separate parish in 1805. The present meetinghouse was built during his pastorate in 1823. He married (1) in 1800, Mary, only daughter of Rev. Timothy Stone, of Lebanon. She died at the early age of thirty-six, leaving her husband with seven children. He married (2) Leah, daughter of Henry Hill, of Guilford. They had one son. During the last ten years he had two colleague pastors. Both of these young men refer to their Senior in terms of reverence and affection. He died September 18, 1849.

We called him "Father Pinneo," and very properly. By this familiar and endearing title was he best known among us. He was a Father, the spiritual Father, of a numerous family.

THE REVEREND DAVID BENTON COE, D.D.

REV. DAVID BENTON COE, D.D., son of Oliver and Ahinoam (Hayes) Coe, born in Granville, Mass., August 16, 1814. Education: Westfield and Monson Academies; Yale B.A. 1837; B.D. 1840; Middlebury D.D. 1857. Ordained in Milford Church October 14, 1840, as Colleague Pastor, and dismissed September 1, 1844. Pastor of Allen Street Presbyterian Church, New York City 1844-49. District Secretary of A. B. C. F. M. 1849-51; Corresponding Secretary of A.H.M.S. 1852-82, with rank of honorary secretary after 1882. Trustee of Robert College, Constantinople. Published (1) "Record of the Coe Family" 1856. (2) "Sketch of Timothy M. Cooley" 1860. (3) "Sketch of Milton Badger" 1875. (4) "Origin and Work of the A.H.M.S." 1887. Married January 6, 1841, Rebecca, daughter of Rev. Alexander and Elizabeth (Tappan) Phoenix, of New Haven. Died at Bloomfield, N.Y., February 13, 1895, in his eighty-first year. His brief ministry in this Church was blessed by a great revival. One hundred and forty-five new members united in 1843, eighty-one of them at one time.

Mr. Coe was passionately loved by his people.

THE REVEREND JONATHAN BRACE, D.D.

REV. JONATHAN BRACE, D.D., son of Thomas Kimberly and Lucy (Lee) Brace, born in Hartford, Conn., June 12, 1810. Education: Yale College 1827-28; M.A. 1850; Amherst 1828-31—Amherst D.D. 1858. He studied Theology one year each at Yale, Andover, and Princeton. Ordained at Litchfield, Conn. 1838. Pastor: Litchfield 1838-44. Interim, Central Presbyterian Church, New York City. Milford 1845-63. Returned (1863) to his native city, Hartford. Editor of "Religious Herald" to the end of his life. Published: (1) "Origin and History of the First Congregational Church, Milford, Conn.," 1852; (2) "Commemoration Discourse," 1860; (3) "Scripture Portraits." Married April 3, 1839, Sarah E., daughter of Eben Finch, of Washington, N.Y. She was referred to as "His devoted and amiable wife."

Permanent moderator of Hartford ministers meeting. "Urbanity, dignity, fidelity to duty. Well-balanced mind, vigorous faculties, remarkable knowledge of the Bible. Widely read. Tenacious memory. Preaching: evangelical, orderly, earnest. A good citizen, always voted, patriotic, very charitable."—Congregational Quarterly, 1878. Died in Hartford, October 1, 1877.

The eloquent words which fell from his lips during the bloody struggle of the Civil War aroused a patriotic enthusiasm in this whole community.

THE REVEREND JAMES WAKEMAN HUBBELL

REV. JAMES WAKEMAN HUBBELL, son of Deacon Wakeman and Julia (Lynes) Hubbell, born in Wilton, Conn., March 29, 1835. Education: Wilton Academy; Yale 1857; Andover Theological Seminary 1863. Teacher: Stamford and Norfolk, Conn. 1857-59. Married August 26, 1852, Margaret Baron, daughter of Edward and Cynthia (Gildersleeve) Lewis, of Portland, Conn. Four children. Died January 8, 1889.

THE REVEREND GEORGE HERMON GRIFFIN

REV. GEORGE HERMON GRIFFIN, son of Hermon and Louisa (Faulker) Griffin, born in New York City, May 13, 1839. Education: Collegiate School of New York; Yale B.A. 1860. After graduation he traveled in England, France, Germany, Switzerland, Italy, Turkey, Greece, and Palestine. On his return he entered Union Theological Seminary and graduated in 1864.

Ordained in Milford, June 22, 1865, where he continued as pastor until February 18, 1885. Secretary for New England of the American Sunday School Union, 1885-92, living in Springfield, Mass. He married June 13, 1867, Katherine Lavinia, daughter of Samuel A., and Lavinia (Nichols) Hayte, of Fishkill, N.Y. They had five children. He published (1) "Thanksgiving Sermon," 1868. (2) "From New York to Jerusalem" (Book), 1881. (3) "Concerning Sacred Music, Ancient and Modern," 1881. (4) "Memorial Day Poem," 1883. (5) "Record of Yale Class of 1860." (6) "What is Needed to Make Our Church Music More Effective," 1891. (7) "God's Care for the Children," 1891. (8) "A Little Child Shall Lead Them—A Christmas Poem," 1891.

His recreations were many and varied. Music next to preaching was his talent, which gave him and others much pleasure. He played the piano quite brilliantly, usually without notes. The Church organ he mastered when young, and played well. He was fond of sketching in pencil, many points of interest in Milford and wherever he traveled. Often on Monday morning, after a busy Sunday, he welcomed into his study at the parsonage, Deacon John Benjamin, the scholar of the town for a two-hour study of their Greek and Hebrew Testaments. He died in Springfield, Mass., September 9, 1894.

He made himself greatly beloved.

FORM FOR THE RECEPTION OF NEW MEMBERS INTO THIS CHURCH

TO PERSONS RECEIVED ON CONFESSION OF FAITH

DEARLY BELOVED, called of God to be His children through Jesus Christ, we give hearty thanks to him, who has opened your eyes to see and your hearts to receive Jesus as your Saviour and Lord, and has inclined you to present yourselves here to enter the communion and fellowship of his Church.

THE DECLARATION OF FAITH

I accept Jesus Christ as my personal Lord and Saviour, and make him my example, and take for my rule of life his words: "Thou shalt love the Lord thy God with all thy heart and mind and soul, and thy neighbor as thyself."

THE COVENANT OF SERVICE

In the presence of God and these witnesses I give myself to his service, and take this to be my Church. Ever mindful of the welfare of my fellow-members, I promise to walk with them in faithfulness and Christian love. I promise that so far as able, I will attend the services of this Church, observe its sacraments, share its work, support its benevolences, and endeavor to make it a faithful body of Christians.

THE BAPTISM

From the beginning of the Christian Church those who wished to be numbered with the followers of Christ were baptized on confession of their faith; do you now wish to receive such Christian baptism as a symbol of that inward purity of life which you seek, and a sign that you dedicate yourself to the service and glory of God?

ANSWER: I do.

TO THE PERSONS RECEIVED BY LETTER

Kindred in Christ, who come acknowledging the vows you made when first you declared your faith in Christ, we bid you welcome. We greet you as fellow-laborers in his service and fellow-travelers to his promised rest. Do you now cordially unite yourselves with this Church of Christ, and accept its covenant of mutual service? Do you promise to pray and work for its upbuilding and its usefulness; to help in sustaining its worship, its activities and its charities; and to live with us in Christian fellowship?

ANSWER: I do.

WELCOME BY THE CHURCH

We, then, the members of this Church, welcome you with joy into our communion and fellowship. We pledge you our sympathy, our help, and our prayers that you may evermore increase in the knowledge and love of God. God grant that loving and being loved, serving and being served, blessing and being blessed, we may be prepared while we dwell together on earth for the perfect fellowship of the saints above.

BENEDICTION

Now unto Him who is able to keep you from falling, and to present you faultless before the presence of His glory with exceeding joy; to the only wise God and Saviour, be glory and majesty, dominion and power, world without end, both now and forever. AMEN.

CONSTITUTION AND BY-LAWS

CONSTITUTION

ARTICLE I. NAME

THE name of this Church shall be the CHURCH OF CHRIST, CONGREGATIONAL, IN MILFORD, CONNECTICUT.

ARTICLE II. OBJECT

The object of this Church shall be to bind together followers of Jesus Christ for the purpose of sharing in the worship of God and in making His will dominant in the lives of men, individually and collectively, especially as that will is set forth in the life, teachings and death of Jesus Christ.

ARTICLE III. POLITY

This Church acknowledges Jesus Christ as its head and finds in the Holy Scriptures, interpreted by the Divine Spirit through reason, faith and conscience, its guidance in matters of faith and discipline.

The government of this Church is vested in its members, who exercise the right of control in all its affairs, subject in legal matters to the Articles of Incorporation granted it by the State of Connecticut.

While this Church is amenable to no ecclesiastical body, it accepts the obligations of mutual council, comity and cooperation involved in the free fellowship of the Congregational and Christian Churches, and pledges itself to share their common aims and work.

ARTICLE IV. DOCTRINE

This Church recognizes the Bible as the sufficient rule of faith and practice and holds that living in accordance with the teachings of Jesus Christ is the true test of fellowship. Each member shall have the undisturbed right to follow the Word of God according to the dictates of his own conscience, under the enlightenment of the Holy Spirit. The following statement of faith (or principles), therefore, is not a test but an expression of the spirit in which the church interprets the Word of God.

FAITH. We believe in God the Father, infinite in wisdom, goodness and love; and in Jesus Christ, his Son, our Lord and Saviour, who for us and our salvation lived and died and rose again and liveth evermore; and in the Holy Spirit, who taketh of the things of Christ and and revealeth them to us, renewing, comforting, and inspiring the souls of men.

COVENANT. We are united in striving to know the will of God as taught in the Holy Scriptures, and in our purpose to walk in the ways of the Lord, made known or to be made known to us. We hold it to be the mission of the Church of Christ to proclaim the gospel to all mankind, exalting the worship of the one true God and laboring for the progress of knowledge, the promotion of justice, the reign of peace, and the realization of human brotherhood. Depending, as did our fathers, upon the continued guidance of the Holy Spirit to lead us into all truth, we work and pray for the transformation of the world into the kingdom of God; and we look with faith for the triumph of righteousness and the life everlasting.

ARTICLE V. MEMBERSHIP

Section 1. The members of this Church shall be persons who have been received by vote of the Church and public acceptance of its covenant, (A) on presentation of satisfactory letters of transfer from other churches; or (B) if letters are not available, by reaffirmation of faith on recommendation of the Church Committee; or (C) on confession of faith and baptism (if not previously baptized or exempted because of conviction); or (D) on recommendation of the Church Committee when external baptism is waived because of conviction.

Section 2. Reception. Persons recommended by the Church Committee having been approved by vote at a regular meeting or service of the Church shall be received at a communion service or at some other time as ordered by the Church, by public assent to the covenant. Any who are unable to attend in public after approval by the Church, may be received by the deacons acting in behalf of the Church.

Section 3. Termination of Membership. The continuance of membership shall be subject to the principles and usages of the Congregational and Christian Churches, and especially as follows:

(A) Any member in good and regular standing who desires a letter of dismissal and recommendation to another church, upon request is entitled to receive it by vote of the Church Committee. This letter shall be valid as a recommendation for one year only from its date, unless renewed, and this restriction shall be stated in the letter. The right to vote shall be suspended when a letter is voted, and membership shall terminate upon notice of acceptance into another church, or at the end of one year after inquiry which fails to give ground for renewal. General letters addressed to no particular church shall not be granted.

(B) If a member desires to join a religious body with which this Church is not in fellowship, or which would not receive its letter, the church may, at his request, give him a certificate of his standing, and his membership shall terminate upon receipt of notice that said member has been received into the body to which the certificate was given.

(C) If, because of change of faith or for other reasons not involving unchristian conduct, a member in regular standing requests in writing to be released from his covenant obligations, the Church shall patiently endeavor to secure his continuance in its fellowship; failing in such efforts, the Church may vote to grant the request and terminate such membership.

(D) Members whose addresses have long been unknown or who for a period of two years, in spite of kindly approaches, have not communicated with the Church or contributed to its support, may, by vote of the Church, be transferred to a retired list. From the date of such transfer such persons shall cease to be reported on the active membership roll. If, after the expiration of a year, their addresses are still unknown or they are unwilling to renew active connection with the Church, their names may be dropped from the roll by a further vote of the Church.

(E) Should a member become an offense to the Church and to its good name by reason of immoral or unchristian conduct, or by persistent breach of his covenant vows, the Church on recommendation of the Church Committee may censure such a member, suspend him or terminate his membership by a two-thirds vote at a duly called meeting; but only after due notice and hearing, and after faithful efforts have been made to bring such a member to amendment in accordance with the law of Christ.

The membership of no person shall be terminated (except by Letter) at the meeting in which such action is first made.

Section 4. Restoration of Membership. Any person whose membership has been terminated may be restored by vote of the Church at a duly called meeting; if for any offense, upon evidence of his reformation, or if for any other cause, upon satisfactory explanation.

ARTICLE VI. OFFICERS AND COMMITTEES

Section 1. Officers and Committees. The Officers of this Church shall be a pastor, associate pastor, assistant pastor or pastor's assistant if the Church desires; twelve deacons; twelve deaconesses; nine trustees (two of whom shall be the Church treasurer and the financial secretary) a Church Committee; a clerk; a treasurer; a financial secretary; a church school superintendent; a historian; and an executive council.

The committees of this Church (other than the Church Committee) shall consist of a Music Committee of seven members, one of whom shall be a trustee; a Committee on Religious Education; a Welcoming Committee of five men; an Ushering Committee of twelve men; an Auditing Committee of not less than two members; and a Nominating Committee of nine, consisting of one trustee, one deacon, the Superintendent of the Church School, the President of the Woman's Association, the President of the Men's Organization; and four members chosen from the Church at large.

Section 2. Election of Officers and Committees. All officers and committees (except the pastor, associate pastor, assistant pastor or pastor's assistant, deacons, deaconesses, trustees, and the nominating committee) shall be elected by ballot at the annual meeting by a majority vote for the term of one year. The deacons and deaconesses shall be chosen for a term of three years, one third of each board to be elected by ballot at each annual meeting. Two trustees shall be elected by ballot at each annual meeting to serve for a term of three years, except that every third year three trustees shall be so elected for a term of three years. No trustee shall be eligible for reelection after serving two full terms until the lapse of one year.

The nominating committee shall be elected by the Church Committee at its first meeting following the annual meeting of the Church.

Section 3. Pastor and Associate Pastor. The Pastor, to be chosen by the Church whenever a vacancy occurs, shall hold his office without limitation of time and may be installed (or recognized by council) when pastor or Church so desires. It shall be his duty to preach the Word, to care for the stated services of public worship, to administer the ordinances and promote the spiritual welfare of the Church and those whom it serves. He shall be ex-officio, a member of all boards and committees, shall preside at all meetings of the Church except when matters concerning himself are considered and shall make a report of the year's work at the annual meeting. Whether installed or not, the pastoral relation may be dissolved either by vote of the Church or by the pastor by a written notice of such intention three months in advance.

If the Church desires an associate pastor, he shall be chosen by the Church and shall hold office without limitation of time. This relation may be dissolved either by vote of the Church or by the associate pastor by a written notice of such intention three months in advance. The associate pastor shall coöperate with the pastor and shall assume such pastoral duties as may appear in the best interests of the Church. He shall be, ex-officio, a member of all boards and committees, and shall make a report of the year's work at the annual meeting.

Section 4. Assistant Pastor or Pastor's Assistant, or Both. The Assistant Pastor or Pastor's Assistant, or both, to be chosen by the Church whenever a vacancy occurs, shall hold office without limitation of time. This relation may be dissolved either by vote of the Church or by the Assistant Pastor, or Pastor's Assistant, or both, by written notice of such intention two months in advance.

It shall be the duty of this officer to have supervision over all activities for and with young people, and all organizations of young people in the Church; to act as Director of Religious Education, and through the Superintendent to have supervision of the Church School; to make such pastoral calls, particularly on families wherein there are young people, as may be assigned by the Pastor; and to assist the Pastor in every way possible in the fulfillment of his pastoral duties. When the Church shall desire to have both an assistant pastor and a pastor's assistant, these duties shall be divided under the direction of the pastor or by vote of the Church Committee.

Section 5. The Clerk. The Clerk shall keep a faithful record of the proceedings of the Church and of any organization of which he may be a member ex-officio. He shall keep a register of the members of the Church, with date of reception and removal; record baptisms, marriages, and deaths, and make full report to the Church at its annual meeting. He shall issue letters of dismissal and transfer as voted by the Church Committee, notifying the churches to which they are addressed; preserve a file of all communications, documents, and written official reports of all organizations; notify all persons elected to office, to committees or to membership in the Church; give legal notice of all meetings when such notice is necessary; report all communications intended for the Church; and conduct as may be necessary its correspondence.

Section 6. Treasurer. The Treasurer shall keep separate accounts of all money received by him for the support of the Church and those for benevolent interests or for the conduct of any of its organizations. He shall make report at the annual meeting, with vouchers for all disbursements. His records shall be certified by the auditing committee.

Section 7. Financial Secretary. The Financial Secretary shall be charged with the work and responsibility that usually pertain to the office of collector. He shall keep a careful record of all pledges, of money received weekly or otherwise, and pay the same to the Church treasurer, and make a report at the annual meeting of the Church, or quarterly if so requested by the Church. His accounts shall be certified by the auditing committee.

Section 8. The Church School Superintendent. The Superintendent of the Church School, under the direction of the Assistant Pastor or Pastor's Assistant, shall have charge of the Church School as its executive officer, and shall be chairman of the Religious Education Committee. He shall make a complete report of the School at the annual meeting or at such other times as the Church may request.

Section 9. The Historian. The Historian shall have charge of the old records and any other valuable historical data of the Church, the same to be kept at all times in the Church safe; and shall issue at his discretion permits to members or other responsible parties for examination of such records under his supervision.

He shall be expected to compile a current history of the Church each year, covering such events as may not of necessity be recorded in the regular records of the Church; to keep an account of all special services, and a file of special programs (as well as regular Church Calendars) and a record of all occasions of interest from a historical standpoint; and to act as supervising editor of any historical publications which the Church may from time to time vote to issue.

Section 10. The Church Committee. The Church Committee shall consist of the Pastor, Associate Pastor, Assistant Pastor or Pastor's Assistant, or both, the deacons, the deaconesses, the clerk, the superintendent of the Church School, and four members at large, two of whom shall be women.

Section 11. The Executive Council. The Executive Council shall consist of the Pastor, Associate Pastor, Assistant Pastor or Pastor's Assistant, or both, deacons, deaconesses, superintendent of the Church School, clerk, treasurer, financial secretary, trustees, president of the Woman's Association, president of the Men's Organization, historian, president of the Young People's society of Christian Endeavor, chairmen of all regular committees or active units, and four members at large of the Church Committee.

Section 12. Delegates. Delegates shall be chosen at the annual meeting to represent the Church at the State Conference, the District Association, and other fellowship meetings. It shall be the duty of these delegates to prepare themselves for a helpful and intelligent participation in these matters and to cultivate in the members of the Church a wholesome appreciation and valuation of the trusts involved in our Congregational and Christian fellowship and to see that they are surrendered, if at all, only after the mutual fellowship, counsel and approval of the Churches concerned.

The Pastor shall ordinarily be considered the delegate of the Church to the General Council meetings of the Congregational and Christian Churches of the United States.

ARTICLE VII. ORGANIZATIONS

All organizations, such as the Church School, the Young People's societies, the Woman's Organizations, the Men's Organizations, the Boy Scouts, and the Girl Scouts, are regarded as integral parts of the Church and shall be under the general oversight of the Church, to which they shall make an annual report, and shall from time to time present their activities and needs for the review of the Executive Council and for its counsel and suggestive help.

ARTICLE VIII. MEETINGS

(A) Public services of worship shall be held each week on the Lord's Day except that union services with other churches may be held during the summer months.

(B) The Lord's Supper shall be observed ordinarily on the first Sunday of January, March, May, July, September, and November.

(C) The annual meeting shall be held on the second Wednesday in January for the purpose of hearing the yearly reports of officers and departments; to elect officers; to adopt the annual budget; and to consider plans for the new year.

(D) Special business meetings may be called by the Pastor, the clerk, or by the deacons, trustees, or any five members by written request, all through the clerk.

(E) Notice of all business meetings shall be placed on the Church calendar, read from the pulpit, and posted on the bulletin board at least three days before such meetings are to be held.

(F) The Church Committee, Trustees, Executive Council, and all regular committees shall have regular meetings as determined by each group, notice of all such meetings to be publicly announced for the information of the Church.

ARTICLE IX. LEGACIES

All gifts of money bequeathed, presented to or coming into the possession of the Church shall be carefully recorded by the clerk in the records of the Church, and, unless otherwise specified by the donor, shall be used only for such purposes as shall be determined by the Board of Trustees, with the approval of the Church.

ARTICLE X. AMENDMENTS

This Constitution may be amended by a two-thirds vote of the members present and voting at any annual meeting of the Church, or at a meeting especially called for that purpose, the proposed amendment being inserted in the call. But no change shall be made in Articles II, III, and IV except at an annual meeting and by a two-thirds vote of all members of the Church present and entitled to vote, said proposed change having been laid before the Church in writing at a business meeting held not less than one month before the time of the proposed action and read from the pulpit on the Sunday next preceding such proposal.

BY-LAWS

ARTICLE I. ORGANIZATION OF TRUSTEES, COMMITTEES AND EXECUTIVE GROUPS

THE Pastor shall preside at all meetings of the Church, the Church Committee and the Executive Council. The Trustees and all committees except the Committee on Religious Education, shall elect their own presiding officers.

ARTICLE II. DUTIES OF BOARDS AND COMMITTEES

Section 1. Deacons. The Deacons shall care for the preparation and administration of the ordinances of baptism and the Lord's Supper. They shall have direct oversight and care of the poor, the sick, the sorrowing and the stranger, and they shall organize to meet the needs of all such.

Section 2. Deaconesses. The Deaconesses shall visit the sick and needy, call upon new members, introduce new families into the life of the Church and coöperate with the pastor and the deacons in promoting the spiritual interests of the Church.

Section 3. The Church Committee. The Church Committee shall have full charge of the spiritual work of the Church. The committee shall pass upon all applications for membership and shall have power to grant letters of dismissal. It shall be the duty of the committee to recommend measures of discipline and revision of the roll. The committee shall see that the denominational and interdenominational fellowship obligations of the Church are fulfilled and develop a vital fellowship through the missionary program of the Church and denomination. The committee shall keep in touch with absent members and assist the pastor in conserving a faithful membership, in promoting public and family worship by the use of every legitimate means, and they, the members of the committee, shall be dedicated to the deepening of the spiritual life of the members of the Church and Parish. It shall be the duty of this committee to see that the pulpit is supplied in the absence of the pastor and that the ordinances and services of the Church are observed with regularity and reverence. The Church Committee may organize sub-committees, including in their membership other members of the Church than members of the Church Committee. The Chairmen of such committees shall be members of the Church Committee.

Section 4. The Trustees. The Trustees shall have the care and custody of the property of the Church and have charge of its financial affairs, but shall have no power to buy or sell, mortgage, lease or transfer any real property without specific vote of the Church. The trustees shall provide for the prompt payment of the salaries and current expenses, make full report of all their doings at the annual meeting and present a budget for the ensuing year, making provision for raising it by an every-member canvass not later than the second week in December each year, or as may be suggested by the Church. The Board of Trustees may organize sub-committees, including in their membership other members of the Church than trustees. The Chairmen of such committees shall be trustees.

Section 5. The Executive Council. The Executive Council shall be an advisory body only, counseling the various organizations, coordinating their activities, and making such recommendations to the Church as may seem wise, concerning policy and administration.

It shall hold such meetings as may be called by the pastor or by the clerk at the request of any five members. The pastor shall act as chairman and the clerk as secretary, and the Council shall make full report of all its deliberations at the annual meeting of the Church.

Section 6. The Committee on Religious Education. This committee shall have full charge of all matters bearing upon an adequate program of religious education. The primary function of this committee shall be to adopt the best system of religious education available for all classes of the Church School. The committee shall correlate courses of instruction, secure proper equipment, and represent the Church in all matters of education in the community, denominational and interdenominational enterprises. It shall enlist and train volunteers for Christian Service. The Superintendent of the Church School shall be the chairman of this committee. The committee shall prepare an annual budget of its needs for presentation to the trustees for incorporation in the annual Church budget.

Section 7. The Music Committee. This committee shall have full responsibility for the music connected with all services of the Church. It shall be the duty of the committee to engage annually the director and organist, all singers, and to arrange for special musical services. The committee shall build up an adequate library of Church Music and present a budget of its needs to the trustees in ample time to include it in the yearly budget.

Section 8. The Welcoming Committee. It shall be the duty of this committee by their presence in the Church vestibule or wherever placed by the chairman, before and after all services of the Church, to create an atmosphere of cordiality and good will toward strangers, to develop friendliness and fellowship, and to perform such other duties as the Church may from time to time suggest.

Section 9. The Ushering Committee. This committee shall have charge of ushering at all the regular services of the Church, striving in all ways to further a feeling of cordiality, good-will, and service toward all strangers, and among members of the Church.

Section 10. The Auditing Committee. The Auditing Committee shall audit the accounts of the Church and of all its officers and present a report to the Church at the annual meeting.

Section 11. The Nominating Committee. The Nominating Committee shall prepare, prior to each annual meeting a list of nominations of officers and committees (except the Nominating Committee) for the ensuing year. The committee shall cause such a list of nominations to be published in the Church Calendar at least one Sunday preceding the annual meeting, or shall give such other notice of nominations as the Church may direct. The committee shall prepare official ballots for use at the annual meeting, and shall cause to be printed or written on such ballots the nominations as made by the committee. The right of a member to make a nomination from the floor of the annual meeting shall always be recognized, and space shall be provided on the official ballots for writing in names other than those placed in nomination by the nominating committee.

The Committee shall act as a committee on election, serve as tellers and announce the results of the election at the annual meeting.

ARTICLE III. PRESENTATION OF SPECIAL CAUSES

The Church Committee shall have full authority in determining what causes shall be given opportunity to present their work and make financial appeals for support of the same at any of the stated services of the Church.

ARTICLE IV. VOTING PROCEDURE

(A) The right to vote belongs only to active members of the Church. Members who have been transferred to the inactive or retired list have no right to vote.

(B) Voting at any of the meetings of the Church may follow the usual Congregational procedure of a display of hands, or by voice, or by rising, except that at the annual meeting all officers required to be elected by ballot shall be elected by the use of the official ballots provided for that purpose.

(C) A majority vote of the members present shall be decisive. The calling of a pastor, to be done upon the recommendation of not less than a two-thirds vote of the Executive Council, shall, however, require a two-thirds vote of all voting members of the Church present, at a meeting specially called for this purpose.

(D) Members in good standing, eighteen years of age or over may act and vote in all transactions of the Church except legal and financial matters, in which case those voting must be twenty-one years of age.

ARTICLE V. QUORUM

Twenty voting members shall constitute a quorum at special business meetings, but not less than forty voting members shall be necessary for a quorum at the annual meeting.

ARTICLE VI. AMENDMENTS

These By-Laws may be amended at any business meeting of the Church by a two-thirds vote of the members present, notice of the changes proposed having been given in writing one week previous.
